ADDE OF BRUNNING WARRINGS THE THE

BRYAN COMING TWICE:

EFFORT TO PLEDGE HIM TO BE PERSONALLY FALSE TO SILVER,

And Content Himself, if Elected, With Advising Legislation-His Second Visit Will Be on Oct. 27, and Mr. Croker Will Not Then Be His Host-Ittnerary Through the State. As the time draws near for Bryan and Steven-on to make their appearance in New York city the plans for the demonstration in their honor are gradually augmented Mr. Croker annced last night after he had held a meeting of the Ratification Committee, which has the reception in charge, that on the night of Oct. 16, when Bryan will speak in Madison Square Garden, Tammany Hall, Cooper Union, and from a stand at Twenty-fourth street and Madison Square, Fourth avenue from the Garden to Cooper Union will be one continuous pyrotechnic display, and there will be bands at pretty nearly every crossing. It was announced that Col. Bryan will come back on Oct. 27 and will speak in Madison Square Garden and in several other places, on this trip under the direction of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, of which William R. Hearst is the President. The Democrats out in the West, like their brethren in the South, do not like Tammany Hall and it was decided to have Mr. Bryan make a second visit to New York city just to demonstrate to all the people who don't live here that he was not tied up exclusively to Mr. Croker. Mr. Croker does not know what time on Oct. 16 Mr. Bryan will arive in this city, but as soon as the candidate gets here he will be taken over to the Hoffman House by a special committee which will meet him at the station. At the Hoffman House he will consult until 5 o'clock P. M. with the various distinguished plutocrat hunters who keep open the six luxurious parlors for which the Democratic National Committee pays rent out of its well-filled treasury.

At 5 he will go to dinner in the Turkish room of the Hoffman House. His host will be Mr. Croker, and the other guests will be Stevenson, Stanchfield and Mackey, and Web Davis. It will be observed that Bourke Cockran, who was invited to speak with Mr. Bryan at Madison Square Garden, is not among the guests invited to this dinner. It will also be observed that none of the members of the National Committee is included in the list. Neither are some of the men with whom Col. Bryan has been most intimate on his previous visits to this city.

Before Mr. Bryan gets here, according to information which was furnished to the Republican National Committee yesterday by a Gold Democrat of considerable prominence in the financial district, an effort is to be made to get him to make a declaration in one of his speeches here that if elected he will not seek to do what Secretary Gage says be can do toward "nullifying the present Currency law" without the sauction of Congress. This movement has its origin in the minds of several Democrats of heavy financial interests, who want to get back into the party and be regular, but who do not feel that they can do so unless they can get Bryan to say that he will not attempt by an Executive act alone to upset the country's finances. They want him to say that all he will do, if elected President, will be to advise such legislation as he desires. The men who are in charge of this scheme believe that Bryan will make a great hit by making such a declaration, and they are going to use every effort to get him to do so.

Mr. Croker has alfready or dered the fireworks for the Bryan visit. The fireworks display is to be one of the most elaborate ever attempted in town, and particularly elaborate exhibitions will be given at Madison Square. Tammany Hall and Cooper Union. Mr. Croker's great agrial campaign will be in full progress by the lights.

be lighted up with stereopticons and searchlights.

Some few minor changes in the Creker programme have been made. Instead of 350 there are to be 1,300 Vice-Presidents. Among them will be the head of every department in Greater New York and every Commissioner in the municipal government. Eight boxes next to the speakers' platform on the Twenty-seventh street side of the Garden and two sections of seats immediately in front of the platform will be occupied by these Vice-Presidents. Every prominent man who wants to attend the meeting will be made a Vice-President so that he can get a seat. Admission to the body of the hall will be general, and the rule "First come, first served" will prevail. Mr. Croker is convinced that the demonstration will bring out the greatest crowd that New York has ever seen at a political gathering. After the celebration all the Democratic papers in the United States are to tell their readers that New York arose as one man to greet the Silver Knight.

While Mr. Croker was walking through Four-teenth street on his way to the Democratic Club after the committee meeting last night, one of his companions called his attention to the condition of the readway which is full of heles and in bad shape generally. "I am afraid Col. Bryan wont be able to get through here, Mr. Croker," said this man. "Well, you'd better see Krating about it at once," said Mr. Croker. So Fourteenth street will probably be fixed up by the time Mr. Bryan gets here.

BRYAN WRONG ABOUT SULU TREATY. The Existence of Slavery in the Archipelago Not Recognized by Us.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. - Acting Secretary of War Meiklejohn has written the following letter to William Jennines Bryan: "WASHINGTON, Oct. 6, 1900. "DEAR SIR: In the press reports yesterday referred to the overthrow of human slavery In the United States resulting from the success of the armies of the Union, you are also reported as saying in that connection: 'We fought then for the adoption of a Constitutional amenda slave, and yet before the Philippine war is ended we have the Sulu treaty, which recog-encied we have the Sulu treaty, which recognizes savery."

"Permit me to invite your attention to the following extract from the letter of the Secretary of War to Major-Gen Otis, commanding the United States forces in the Philippines, under date of Oct 27, 1890:

"The President instructs me toadvise you that the agreement signed Aug. 29, 1890, between Briz-Gen John C. Bates, representing the United States, of the one part, the Sultan of Jolo, the Data Rajnh Muda, the Dato Attik, the Dato Calbi, and the Dato Joakanain, of the other part, is confirmed and approved, subject to the action of Congress, provided for in that clause of the treaty of peace between the United States and Spain which provides, "The civil rights and the political status of the native inhabitants of the territory hereby coded to the United States shall be determined by Congress," and with the understanding and reservation, which should be distinctly communicated to the Sultan of Joio, that this agreement is not to be deemed in any way to authorize or give the consent of the United States to the existence of lay. ery in the Salu archine/age, a thing which is made impossible by the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States."

"It is probably unnecessary to call your attention to the fact that in the absence of the approval of the President it is happessible for us to thave the Salu treaty, or any other treaty Very respectfully.

"Why?" inquires his brother. "There are more McKinley banners than Bryan banners in town."

Banners don't vote. "No, but they show which way the wind blows.

At every performance when this joke is sprung McKinley's name is received with loud applause. In fact, at all of the theatres a McKinley joke this year is more loudly cheered than a joke that favors Bryan. Even on the Bowery, a Democratic stronghold, where it is natural to suppose that Bryan jokes would go well, the Democratic candidate hasn't the better of it with the audiences. Many of the comedians who work off political gags, however, do so sketch team at Miner's Bowery, which essays political humor, tries a McKinley verse, sung by the male members of the team first, and then the female member switches onto Bryan DEMOCRATIC SENATE CANDIDATES. The Seven Slated Nominated-Dr. J. H. McCabe in Place of Senator Coffey.

The Democratic machine in Kings county continues to work smoothly so far as thel nominating conventions are concerned. The seven Senatorial conventions were held last night and the slates as made out by the managers went through without a sign of dissent. Senators Thomas H. Cullen, P. H. McCarren and Seventh and Ninth districts respectively These were the other nominations: J. Grattan McMahon in the Fourth district, Dr. James H. McCabe in the Fitth district, Walter C. Burton the Sixth district and John H. Durack in the with district.

"Order of Appellate Division reversed and that of Special Term affirmed, with costs."

The opinion in the case was written by Chief Judge Parker and was concurred in by Judges Haight, Vaunn and Landon, Judge Cullen prepared a dissenting opinion, which was concurred in by Judges O'Brien and Bartlett. Judge Parker's opinion decides that a member of a general political committee cannot be removed from office by the votes of a majority of the committee; also that the will of a majority of the committee; also that the will of a majority of persons voting at a primary election for a member of a County Committee may not be overridden by the committee itself. Judge Parker says in his opinion that the Primary aw enacted by the Lexislature was for the purpose of giving the voters a voice in their representation in the County Committee, and reviews the law at length. He finds that the shoice of the member of a County Committee is vested solely in the votes at the primary election. "Order of Appellate Division reversed and

This upholds the contention of Senator Cof-'ey that he had been illegally deprived of his standing in the Democratic organization of have Kings county. His break with the Democratic managers occurred a year ago, when he came out flat-footed against the nomination of John Morrissey Gray for County Register and opposed him during the campaign. Gray was overwhelmingly snowed under by Mr. Howe, his Republican opponent, and directly after election it was determined to subject Coffey to the severest kind of discipline.

The special committee which was appointed to try him found him guilty of political treason and recommended his expulsion from the General Committee and the Executive Committee. This action was taken by the General Committee and only two delegates, Warden Patrick Hayes and Luke D. Stapleton, had the courage to vote against it. Senator Coffey sued for reinstatement at the Special Term of the Supreme Court and Justice Maddox decided in his favor, holding that he could not be removed from his office as county committeeman on any pretext of irregular action at a local election, since the Primary law makes the test only the support of State or rational candidates. The case was taken to the Appellate Division, which reversed Justice Maddox's decision.

There was much rejoicing last night among cratic managers occurred a year ago, when

There was much rejoicing last night among Coffey's friends in the Red Hook district, when they learned of his legal victory and much regret that the Court of Appeals had not handed down its decision ahead of the recent primaries, at which he was only beaten by the Willeughby street faction by a majority of two votes. It is said that he would have won out easily at the primaries had he not been handleanned by he primaries had he not been handicapped by he han of irre-dularity placed on him by the

By a decision of the Court of Appeals, Coffey will be restored to his privileges in the Democratic organization until the organization of the new General Committee early next year, but it is not likely that he will take any part in its proceedings. The decision, however, of the Court of Appeals, will probably make him a still sharper thorn in the side of the Willoughby street ragime. Mr. Stapleton, who assisted Isaac M. Kapper in prenaring Coffee's case for the Court of Appeals, has this to say about the decision. "It is certainly extremely grafifying to us, as we had no doubt of the result from the beginning and were convinced that a great injustice was being done. The primary laws of this State have been upheld as effectual. It is a great concession to the rights of the citizen."

It is confidently believed that Coffey will either run himself as an independent candidates for Senator in the Fifth district or put up some one else. By a decision of the Court of Appeals, Coffey

The Republican national campaigners at i Madison avenue announced yesterday that the miners at Victor, Col., where Gov. Roosevelt and his party were attacked by a Bryanite mob, had been polled and that two-thirds of them were for McKinley. In speaking of this yesterday Senator Scott said:

"This disturbance has no doubt hurt Bryan's cause greatly, especially in Colorado. We have Joseph Wagner were nominated in the Third, heard enough to warrant us in putting that State in the doubtful column, and it looks as if would climb into the sure Republican column before long. The correspondent who polled the Victor mine the other day with the above result Victor mine the other day with the above result writes us that four years ago the miners stood 18 for Bryan and 2 for McKinley. Now two-hirds are for McKinley and one-third for Bryan. At that rate throughout the State where will Bryan be on election day? Our correspondent says: 'It is the universal viction of all Republicans here that the iemonstration given here by the Bryantest to Gov. Roosevelt will make thousands of cotes for the Republican party.' In other words, the respectable people of Colorado do not seem to share the view of Gov. Thomas of words, the respectable people of Colorado de that State, who called the mobbing of Gov Roosevelt only a simple, pleasant way of showing disapprobation. Our correspondent also save that hearly every one in Colorado who is naturally a Republican will be with us this fall. As Colorado is naturally one of the strongest Republican States in the country, this would appear to call for some missionary work on the part of the Bryanites in that field of labor."

CLERK SUTPHIN DEFEATED.

Connorton Wins in the Queens County Democratic Convention.

John H. Sutphin, who has held the office of Clerk of Queens county continuously for more than thirty years, failed to obtain a renomination at the hands of the Queens County Democratic Convention held in Schuetzen Park, Long Island City, yesterday. In the convention were men who owed their political existence to Mr. Sutphin, while stripling delegates who voted against him were unborn when he first took office. The hall was jammed and the spectators had about as much say in the proceedings as the delegates. Councilman Joseph Cassidy and the | the Democratic party is puerile. He says: delegates. Councilman Joseph Cassidy and the Sutphin forces formed one wing of the convention, while the other side acted under the supposed leadership of Coroner Philip T. Cronin of Far Rockaway. But the real hand at the helm was that of Patrick J. Mara, a contractor and boss of the Democratic party in the old town of Flushing, now known as the Third ward. A contest was made over the selection of a permanent chairman and the Cronin faction won by seating Joseph Powers of Rockaway Beach. This was looked upon as a sort of test vote.

Bert G. Humphreys placed County Clerk Suphin's name before the convention for renomination and Magistrate William Rasquin Jr., named Magistrate Luke J. Connorton. On the ballot that followed Commotion got 23 yotes and Sutchin 19 Cornor. Philip T. Cronin of Far Rockaway and Henry W. Sharkey, who served a term as under sheriff of Queens county and was once county detective, were named from Long Island City. Cronin received 25 and Sharkey 17 votes. This ended the work of the convention. Far-sighted politicians assert that this is one of the weakest tickets that could be nominated. Cronin was never strong outside his own village, Far Rockaway. While Connorton is strong in his own town, Flushing, it is asserted that he cannot draw upon the vote in Newtown and Long Island City, which is necessary to the success of the Democratic ticket.

ALBANY MERCHANTS OPPOSE BRYAN. Men of Both Parties to Organize a McKinley and Roosevelt Club.

ALBANT, Oct. 9 - Bryanism is being opposed by the merchants of Albany having the business welfare of the city at heart, and the Albany Business Men's McKinley and Roosevelt Club will be formed with men of both parties in it. The idea of forming the club was conceived by a half dozen of the city's most prominent business men, including such well-known Democra's as former Congressman Charles Tracey, Edward F. Hackett and John S. Delchanty. A meeting to organize the club is to be held in a few days.

T. M. STEWART $800,000 Liquidation Sale Men's and Boys' Clothing, Etc.

The death of two members of our firm, within a year, makes it imperative to liquidate, that is, to settle up the accounts of the old Company.

To do this best and quickest, it has been decided to sell the $800,000 worth of Clothing prepared for this season's trade, for Cash—and do it now in the height of the season, so every garment has been reduced—to sell.

These new and stylish goods were prepared for our own Retail Trade, and it is with regret that this liquidation makes it necessary to sacrifice them, but they
